			Received by the Carrier from the Shipper, as far as ascertained by reasonable means of checking, in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise herein stated, the total number of quantity of Containers or other packages or units indicated in the box entitled "Number of Packages" for carriage from the port of loading (or the place of receipt, if mentioned above) to the port of discharge (or the place of delivery, if mentioned above), such carriage being always subject to the terms, rights, defenses, provisions, conditions, exceptions, limitations, and liberties hereof (INCLUDING ALL THOSE TERMS AND CONDITIONS ON THE REVERSE HEREOF NUMBERED 1-21 AND THOSE TERMS AND CONDITIONS CONTAINED IN THE CARRIER'S APPLICABLE TARIFF) and the Shipper's attention is drawn in particular to the Carrier's liberties in respect of on deck stowage (see clause 9) and the carrying vessel (see clause 10). In accepting this sea waybill, any local customs or privileges to the contrary notwithstanding, the Merchant agrees to be bound by all Terms and Conditions stated herein whether written, printed, stamped or incorporated on the face or reverse side hereof, as fully as if they were all signed by the Merchant. Unless instructed otherwise in writing by the Shipper delivery of the Goods will be made only to the consignee or his authorised representatives. This sea waybill is not a document of title to the Goods and delivery will be made, after payment of any outstanding Freight and charges, only on provision of proper proof of identity and of authorisation at the port of discharge or place of delivery, as appropriate, without the need to produce or surrender a copy of this sea waybill. The Carrier accepts a duty of reasonable care to check that any such proof of identity and authorisation is genuine and original. If the Carrier complies with this duty, it will be entitled to deliver the Goods, such delivery discharging the Carrier's delivery obligations.
Where the term "bill of lading" is used in the terms and conditions on the reverse hereof, it shall be understood to mean waybill and "this bill of lading" shall be construed accordingly
